Dear Sir

In 1917 or 18 during World War 1, I was reported killed in action, which I knew nothing of until I returned in 1919, when I received from your Dept, a letter stating, that the body of an Australian Soldier exhumed from a grave near Fromelles in France, bearing, as the only means of identification, two of my identification discs, & asking if I could enlighten your Dept, as to who the Soldier may have been, the discs were also forwarded to me, which I still have, & after exhaustive thought, I informed your Dept that I had no idea as to whom the Soldier was,

I have since lost this letter, & would deem it a great favour if you could let me have a copy of the original letter from you in 1919, this I would like for various reasons, My particulars then, were as follows,

Dear Sir

Would you be good enough to furnish me with the particulars of a mate of mine by the name of John H Battalion A.I.F., which I feel may throw some light on the mystery of the identity of the Soldier's body exhumed from a grave in France, bearing, as the only means of identification, two of my identification discs, namely Pte C. Hawes. 7th reinforcements. 4th Batt. A.I.F.

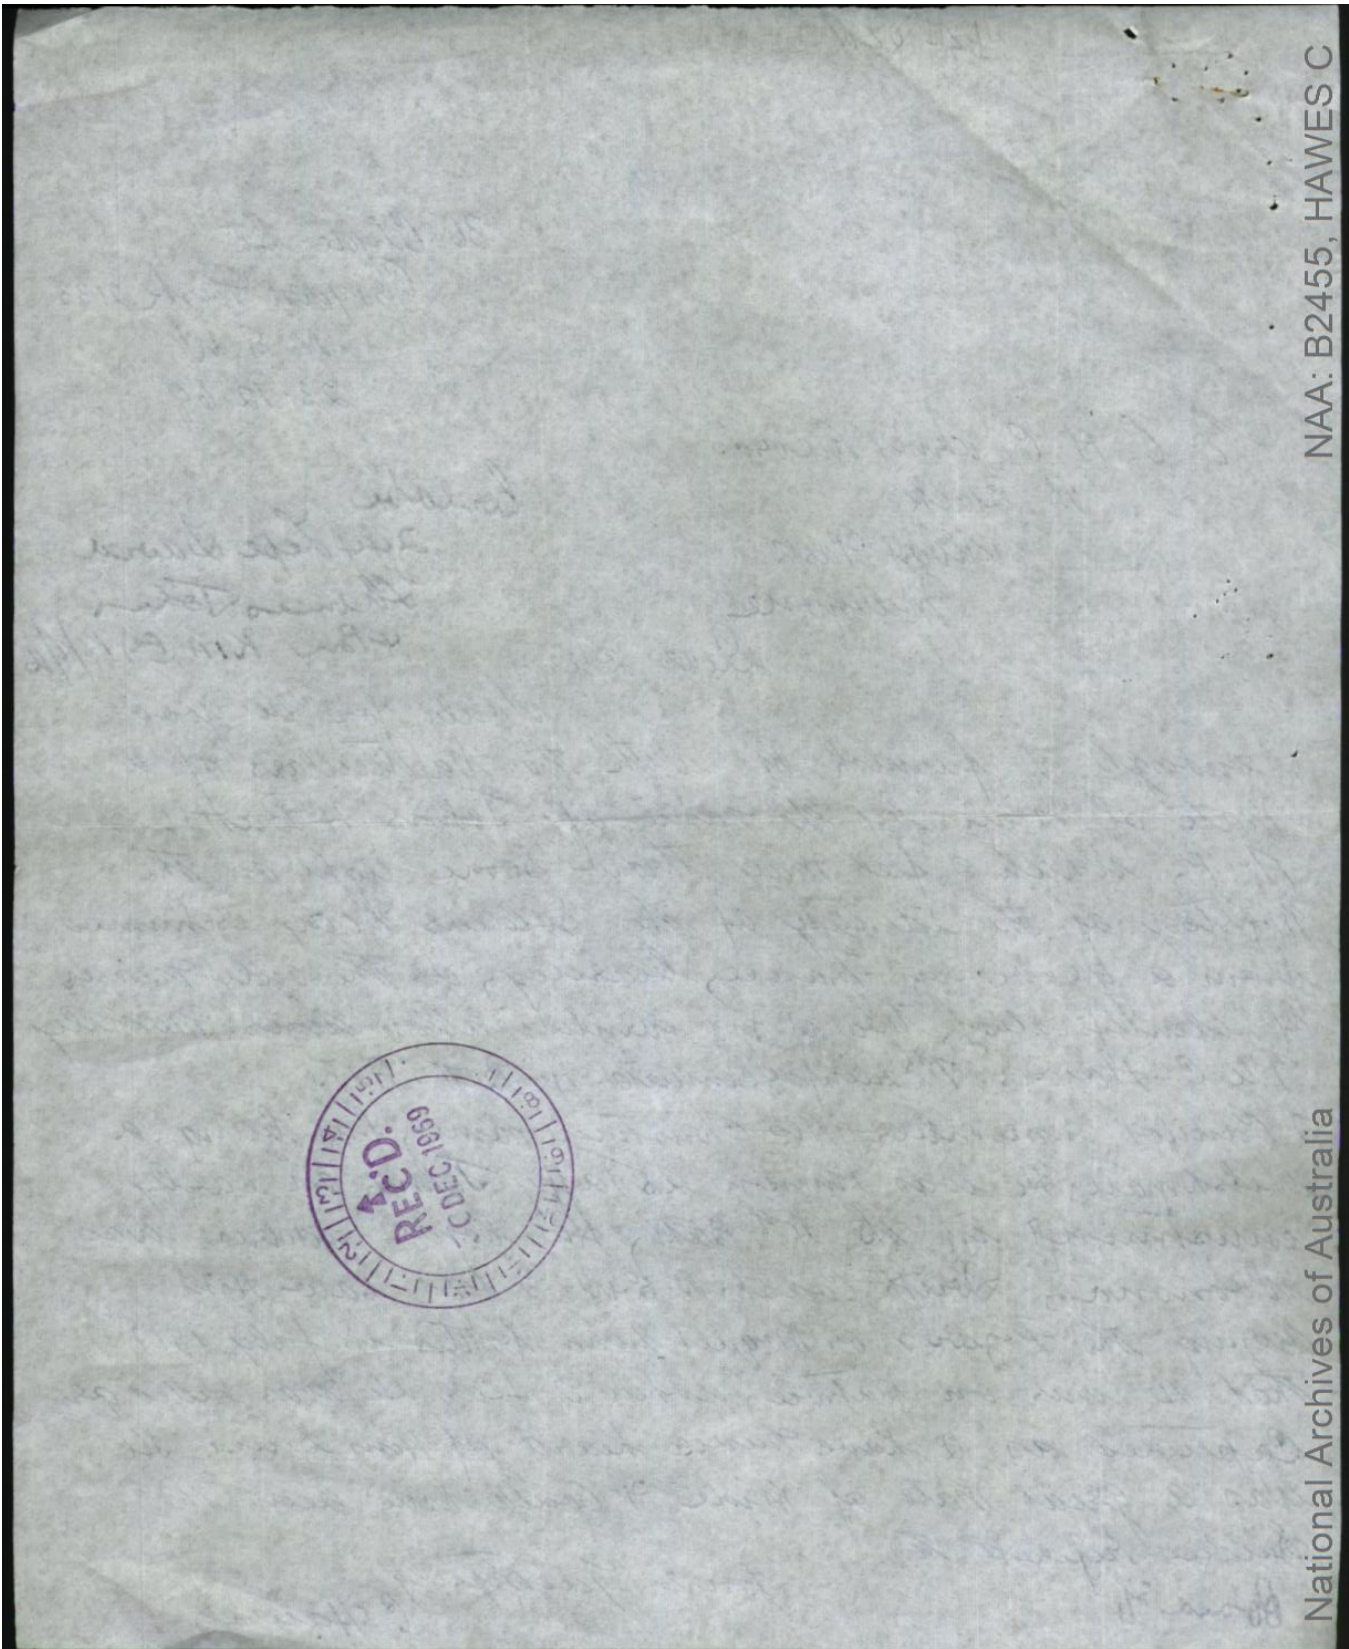

I cannot remember his Christian name, but being a Welshman, he was known as Taffy Johns, an early enlistment in the 4th Batt, his home address was Woonona, South Coast. N.S.W. I last saw him during the Pozieres. or Moquet Farm battles in July 1917 that he was on patrol, when I fear he was killed or captured as I have never heard of him since, he was a great mate of mine & could have been the Soldier referred to
