Dear Sir/Madam

As you can see by a copy of the attached letter, I am writing to you to enquire about how to go about receiving my medal that you have kept for me over the last 55 years.

My family and myself are absolutely delighted to know that this has occurred especially my son, who is still a serving member of the Royal Australian Navy. My friends are also very pleased that it happened while I am still alive and able to receive it personally.

Due to my age, (I will be 80 in April 1998), I would prefer it if you could contact my daughter, who is acting on my behalf, to explain what you require to enable the medal to be delivered to me. My daughter can be contacted at the following address:

Dear Ms McBride

I am writing to you to finalise the loan of the wedding photograph of your mother and father have recently lent to the Memorial. This is an excellent photograph and we will be very happy to add it to our photograph collection. I am sorry this receipt has taken longer to send to you than normal. I started this letter in August but realised I needed more information on your father for the caption and I'm sorry it has taken me this long to get the additional information.

I have enclosed two copies of our Final Receipt together with an Access and Copyright Form which will allow us to administer your collection in accordance with your wishes. Copy 1 of the Final Receipt is for you to keep for your records. I would be grateful if you would sign copy 2 of the Receipt and the Access Form and return both to me in the 'freepost' envelope provided.

When I went to my contact at Soldier Career Management Agency in Melbourne to chase up additional information for the caption he also told me they are holding an unclaimed war medal for your father. If your father was to write to Soldier Career Management Agency GPO Box 393D Melbourne Vic 3001 they will be more than happy to send him the medal.

I have also included a copy of the caption I have written for this photograph and I would be grateful for any comments or corrections.

Your original photographs will be returned as soon as the copying is complete.

On behalf of the Director I would like to thank you for your support of the Memorial's work.
