Dear Madam,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 25th April in connection with the 1914-15 Star of your son, the late No. 930, Private R. G. Murray, 30th Battalion, and would refer you to my communication addressed to you on the 7th December last, to which so far no reply has been received. As indicated therein, the instructions under the Deceased Soldiers' Estates Act of 1918 prescribe that in cases where a soldier was not married the father's claims must be considered first unless there are good and sufficient reasons for varying the procedure. I shall therefore be obliged if you will kindly inform me whether deceased's father is living and if so his present address. Upon receipt of this information the Star will be promptly dealt with.

"I have made enquiries about Murray. I find he was last seen with Pte. Mc Killop in the early morning of July 20/16. They were with Cpl. Sutherland and Pte. Low taking water over to the captured lines. They were travelling on the Sap and when nearly across, were warned that the Germans were bombing down the Sap. They went forward each threw some bombs and then all started back to our lines. Mc Killop and Murray were never seen again. Cpl. Sutherland states that several shells burst very closely in their rear whilst returning and he thinks it almost a certainty that Murray and Mc Killop were both killed."
